

Get Emerald Street delivered free!

[SIGN UP
HERE](#)

London: your Christmas escape plan

Christmas weekend isn't all about TV – walk with Dickens, watch swimmers break the ice at the Serpentine and bake macarons...

WALK THE DICKENS WAY

With his bicentenary celebrations in full swing, join the Christmas Day Charles Dickens' London Walk and imagine festive London as the great writer experienced it. 25 December; 2pm; £8; meet at Trafalgar Square Christmas tree, WC2N

SING ALONG TO CAROLS

As an eventful year draws to a close for St Paul's Cathedral, arrive early to secure a good spot for their free Christmas carol service. All together now: "Oh come let us adore him..." 24 December; 4pm; free; St Paul's Cathedral, Saint Paul's Church Yard, EC4M

CREATE LAST-MINUTE FOODIE TREATS

Get away from the panic of shopping and book a Christmas Eve macaron cookery class. You'll learn a variety of recipes from chocolate and mandarin to salted caramel butter. 24 December; 9am and 12pm; £72; L'atelier des Chefs, 19 Wigmore Street, W1U

CHEER ON THE SERPENTINE SWIMMERS

At the annual Peter Pan Christmas Cup brave swimmers compete in a 100-yard race in The Serpentine. Do the sensible thing – wrap up and cheer them on from the shoreline. 25 December; 9am; free; The Serpentine, Hyde Park, W2

WATCH A CLASSIC CHRISTMAS FILM

We defy anyone to watch It's A Wonderful Life and not come away with "something in my eye". W Hotel is screening the film in its 39-seat private screening room. To book, email denne.dempsey@whotels.com. 24 December; 7.30pm; free; Wardour Street, W1D

Looking for something...?

Follow Emerald Street

Emerald Street on Facebook

Like

9,752

Follow us on Twitter

TRY THESE TOO

How to be more confident

Why being a woman worked for me

How nice girls get their own way

Fight evil in the workplace. And win.

Three unbreakable rules of beauty

Like this...

Share this...

EMAIL FRIENDS

Comments