Cook up a storm

The kitchen can be sexy - remember the film 9 1/2 Weeks? - so turn up the heat by chocolate making, creating cocktails or learning how to make a delicious dish for two. Visit redletterdays.co.uk or lastminute.com to find a cookery class near you. We also like hip London cookery school L'Atelier des Chefs, which will box up your meal to be enjoyed at home. We'll leave it to you to think up something for dessert...

L'atelier des Chefs has cooking classes starting from £15 per person. Book online at atelierdeschefs.co.uk or ring 0207 499 6580.
